

BPP COMMERCIAL LAW JOURNAL

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

How to submit an article

- “ Submissions are accepted on a rolling basis. We will aim to publish articles by the end of each month. As the editorial process can take time, try and make your submissions as early on in the month as you can.
- “ Submissions should be submitted as Word documents to bppcommlaw@gmail.com with the email subject as: Commercial Law Journal Submission.
- “ Please submit the documents titled: name – submission title – date – total word count.
- “ Please feel free to send any queries to the email given above.

Format and style points

- “ Articles can be any length; however, we would recommend writing fewer than 1,500 words for your first draft.
- “ Students are encouraged to write in a pragmatic and commercial manner, using plain, non-legalistic English.
- “ Your target audience is the intelligent reader.
- “ You may express opinions, but take care to ensure that these are non-polemic and balanced.
- “ Please use subheadings to structure your piece.
- “ Please prepare an endnote with full citations for all of your references.
- “ We encourage you to draw from a wide range of sources, including cases, news, articles, and academic literature.

Suggested content

- “ The journal is welcoming submissions on a vast array of commercial topics. Article types can range from think-pieces with an academic spin to discussions of cases and news stories, to informative pieces on areas of commercial law.
- “ Even if your article does not seem to strictly fall into the scope above, we would still welcome your submission if it has a link to the commercial world.
- “ Below are a few hot topics which you may choose to write about (you may, of course, write on topics outside those listed):
- “ The role of capital markets in post-Covid recovery
- “ Huawei’s ban from UK 5G networks and further US trade sanctions
- “ The impact of the Corporate Insolvency and Governance Act 2020
- “ The potential of the US Presidential Election to impact financial markets
- “ Changes within the UK housing market as a result of Covid-19
- “ The future of a no-deal Brexit
- “ The emerging ‘working from home’ economy
- “ The rise of Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs)
- “ Trump’s executive order against TikTok
- “ Legal action by airlines against UK quarantine legislation
- “ The Wirecard Scandal
- “ The impact of Regeneron Pharmaceuticals Inc (Respondent) v Kymab Ltd (Appellant) on patent insufficiency

We look forward to receiving your submissions at bppcommlaw@gmail.com.
